UP TO $50,000 REWARD

Up to $50,000 is being offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of person(s) responsible for the murder of Helen Mary Dahl.

Helen Mary Dahl

Helen Mary Dahl, 79, was found murdered in the basement of her Minneapolis apartment building on February 11, 1994. Minneapolis police were dispatched to the apartment building at 1912 East 26th Street (two blocks east of Cedar on 26th St.) following a call regarding Dahl's welfare. Her body was found in a room off the laundry, she had been strangled and sexually assaulted.

Recently, DNA testing uncovered new physical evidence that could be critically important in solving the case. Police believe that there are witnesses who may have seen Dahl's killer in the apartment building.

Please bring closure to the family and friends of Helen Mary Dahl, and bring her killer(s) to justice.
